

YSI PLENARY

Date: 11 September, 2 p.m.

Topic: Policies of Science, Technology, and Innovation in Latin American Countries.

Speakers: Gabriela Dutrénit (UAM-X, Mexico); Veronica Robert (UNSAM, Argentina); Ana Urraca-Ruiz (UFF, Brazil).

Coordinator: Julia Paranhos (IE/UFRJ, Brazil).

YSI PARALLEL SESSION

Date: 11 September, 8 a.m.

Format: each young scholars have 20 minutes to presents their papers to their peers and to mentors; mentors have 20 minutes to give feedback to the young scholars, reading previously the papers and raising comments during presentations. We strongly recommend English presentations and feedbacks to improve the young scholars' skills.

Title	Author	Mentors
Public policies for biogas and scientific production: Brazil and European Union	Marcos Antonio Rehder Batista (IE/Unicamp)	Gabriela Dutrénit (UAM-X/México)
Knowledge Intensive Entrepreneurship in technology and science lagging behind Countries: Reflexions on the cases of Guatemala, El Salvador and Honduras	Kleinsy Bonilla (IG/Unicamp)
Trajectory of the Colombian pharmaceutical industry and its institutional relationships, 1990-2018	Adriana Mendoza-Ruiz (ENSP/Fiocruz)
The Intensification of Sino-Brazilian Trade as a Vector of the Complexity Loss of Brazilian Exports	Alex de Sousa Fagundes (Hermínio Ometto Foundation)	Ivette Luna (IE/Unicamp) Julia Paranhos (IE/UFRJ)
Price transmission in the nopal markets of Morelos and Milpa Alta through a VAR-VEC analysis	Oscar Rodríguez Medina (UNAM/México)
Universities and Entrepreneurial Ecosystems: A Study from Social Network Analysis	Matheus Marques (IG/Unicamp)
Considerations on Specialization and Productive Diversification of Cities as Source of Economic Dynamism: An Analysis for Brazilian State Capital Cities	Lucas Thixbai Freitas Fraga (IE/UFRJ)	Márcia Rapini (UFMG)
Foresight in the Corporate Context: A Bibliometric Analysis	Danielli Rondon (IG/Unicamp)
Regional Productive Integration and Global Value Chains: a conflictive relationship seen from the automotive sector	Mariano Treacy (UNGS/Argentina)
An agent-based model for the analysis of promotion policies for renewable energy in selected European and Latin American countries	Gustavo Onofre Andreão (IE/Unicamp)	Veronica Robert (UNSAM/Argentina)
Co-evolution of regulatory institutions and technology in the internet industry: the role of regulatory adaptation with focus on net neutrality rules	Vinícius Manhães (UFF)	